SALARY INCREASES GRANTED BY COUNCIL

CITY FATHERS VOTE FOR TWENTY DOLLARS A MONTH INCREASE TO MEMBERS OF THE POLICE AND FIRE DEPARTMENT.

GARBAGE QUESTION UP

Alderman Dulin Brings Vital Measure Before the Council—Special Committee Appointed to Investigate Garbage Disposal.

After many months of waiting, with prices going higher every day, the members of the Janesville police department and fire department were granted their increase in wages at the meeting of the city council last evening. The men of the two departments have been after the increase for several months before the aldermanic form of government came into power in the city. Many of the men in both departments have resigned because they could not live on the salary they were getting.

Alderman Welsh in championing the increases stated that the men were entitled to the increase, and as the departments are undermanned at the present time there is a possibility with the increase that new help can be secured.

Alderman Horn of the first ward was the only absent member when the council met last evening. After the reading of the minutes, the different bills were referred to the different committees, and on motion of Alderman True the council took a fifteen minute recess.

At the conclusion of the recess Alderman Hanson moved that the report of the chief of police be accepted and filed. The motion was carried. Alderman Cronin moved that the report of the chief of fire be accepted and published in the official paper at once. The motion was passed, all voting aye.

Alderman Welsh then read the bid of J. J. Kennedy for the building of a sidewalk, it was the only bid received. After a short discussion the bid was accepted. The bid for the maintenance of the city were then presented. William Reed, who had the contract last year, offered a bid of $31, and W. D. Kennedy offered a bid of $22 for the same work.

At the last meeting of the council an appropriation of $400 a year was made to "Company G. V. S." for the purpose of carrying on the military work of the Janesville high school. Owing to the low financial condition of the company at the present time, Alderman Welsh presented a letter from the commanding officer of the company asking $200 for the present year. The money was readily voted by the council.

Alderman Arthur Jones presented the bond of G. A. Crossman, a dealer in junk. The bond was accepted. Alderman Welsh presented an order for $75 to be paid from the Memorial day fund, to Mayor Valentino for the expenses incurred on Memorial day. The order was allowed.

Alderman Dulin addressed the council in regard to the danger that confronts autoists at the foot of Dodge street south of the Doty mill. Mr. Paulz stated that many dangerous autos turn down the street, making it for Court street, and that several narrow escapes from going into the river have resulted.

Alderman Paulz then requested that the sewerage committee be instructed to investigate the sanitary condition of Holmes street between Academy and Cherry streets. The motion was accepted, all voting aye.

Alderman Dulin addressed the council on the reconsideration of the motion calling for the consolidation of the two down town fire stations. He stated that he thought it advisable not to consolidate the stations without further investigation, and that he also thought the matter should be laid on the table for this being. The motion was carried, thus being. The motion was carried.

Alderman Dulin, reading from the suggestion blank of the Janesville Chamber of Commerce stated that the question of the garbage collection and disposal in this city was a vital one and one that should be given immediate consideration. He then presented a letter asking for the same thing that the garbage committee had suggested.

Dulin Mayor Valentino appointed the following special committee to investigate the garbage question in the city of Janesville and report at the next meeting: Aldermen Dulin, True, Barker, Cronin and Paulz.

City Attorney Roger Cunningham then presented an ordinance in regard to allowing the school board of this city to abolish the teaching of the German language in the schools of the city. The ordinance was given its first and second reading.

Attorney R. G. Cunningham then presented an ordinance for the increasing of salaries of the members of the police and fire departments of this city. All the aldermen displayed keen interest in the ordinance and the only discussion that was held in regard to the amount of increase the men were to be given.

A few of the aldermen favored a ten dollar increase, some favored a fifteen dollar raise and still others wanted to raise the men twenty dollars a month.

A motion was made by Alderman Welsh to raise the salaries of the men $15 per month. The motion, Alderman Welsh stated, was simply to ascertain the feeling of the council. The motion was lost, all voting no.

Alderman Welsh then presented an order calling for $20 a month in increase to the first second and third ward men of the fire and police department. The motion was adopted, all voting aye.

Alderman Welsh made another motion, asking for the increase in salary of the captains of the two departments and also the mechanician. They were also granted a $20 increase. Alderman Welsh then moved that the rules of the council be suspended and the ordinance calling for the increase be passed. The motion was adopted and the ordinance was passed.

Alderman Badger then introduced an order asking for the increase from $10 to $150 per year for the call men of the fire department. The increase was adopted, all voting aye.

Alderman Welsh then presented a motion requesting the city attorney to draw an ordinance giving the janitor of the city hall an increase of $20 a month from the first of July. The motion was carried, all voting aye.

Alderman Dulin then moved that the council adjourn until the next evening at 7 o'clock. The reason for the next meeting of the council being held on that date is that the saloon licenses have to be granted before the first of July.

FURTHER APPEALS TO LOCAL PEOPLE TO ADOPT ORPHANS

Mrs. John G. Rexford Appointed Chairman of Janesville Society For Answering Appeals of French Orphans.

Further appeals for the orphaned and destitute children of France are being made by the local committee serving in the French orphanage. Wisconsin women have been asked by the national committee to save these stricken children.

Because of the emergency arising at this time the committee has been formed in Janesville and is asking for adoptions here. Cable messages telling how the suffering is becoming more widespread continue to come from Paris.

The sum of $3 per month or $36.50 per year takes care of a child either in its own home or keeps them supplied with the necessities of life in the care of a foster-mother. Thousands of these little ones have been left to fight their way alone in the world as a result of the war, and they are appealing to America to help them in their pitiful struggle for existence.

The women of France have given to their country everything they have except their children and they are pleading to be saved the last great sacrifice of giving up their children. In the same spirit in which she has answered the call of America in response to this one and the committee hopes to secure 200,000 adoptions in this country. The children remain abroad, their foster parents having been called to the front.

Many thousands of sons and daughters of French soldiers are finding god-parents in America, but many more must be helped. The following list of names received from a little French boy by his adopted American father:

My Dear God-father: How happy and touched I have been to receive your gift. It is sweet to think when one has no father of someone coming to one's aid. My dear god-father, I am very little. I am only four years old. I like to go to school. She is eight years old. I would go to school too, but I have been very sick, but now I am beginning to get better.

I love to see the soldiers who pass under our windows, our American brothers. I think them very beautiful. I like to see the soldiers. I have grown to like a soldier like them. How happy I will be. My dear god-father, I thank you again with all my heart, and all my life I will cherish a dear affection for you. I embrace you with all my heart.

Contributions may be paid in monthly, quarterly, or yearly installments. Contributions should be sent to the individual benefactors and organizations the name and address of their adopted child will be sent directly after adoption.

Mrs. John G. Rexford has been appointed chairman of the Janesville society and is hoping to receive many pledges from people here who will help in this cause.

MEETING OF MEMBERS COUNCIL THIS EVENING

Chairman and Vice Chairman Requested to be Present Tonight. Chairman Buss Calls Meeting for Wednesday Evening.

A meeting of the members council of the Janesville Chamber of Commerce will be held this evening at seven o'clock. This is the first meeting of the council since the organization of this city's new civic and commercial organization and many matters of importance are to come before the meeting.

With the program of work completed the Chamber of Commerce is now turning to accomplish some of the work asked for or suggested by the members of the body. Many of the members are under the impression that the many suggestions that have been received called for immediate work but many of them will take months to accomplish and the suggestions were asked only for mainly to ascertain what the citizens of this city wanted.

One of the big things for the Chamber of Commerce to do is the engaging of a secretary. Several applications for the position have been received and the committee is investigating all of them thoroughly before placing the man.

Chairman Buss has called a meeting of the committee of twenty-five for tomorrow evening at seven o'clock. Mr. Buss has been one of the most active workers for the new organization and the program of work recently completed by his committee is by far the most important piece of work yet accomplished by any committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

SENIOR PROM IS TO BE HELD THIS EVENING

Expectations are that over one hundred couples will attend the annual senior prom to be given in Apollo hall this evening. The dancing will begin at nine o'clock and will continue until one. The Ragtime Jazz orchestra of Rockford will furnish the musical inspiration.

The hall has been decorated with the national colors and the party will be one of the prettiest of the year. The committee in charge of affairs is composed of Ranous Schaller, Harold Persons and Robert Stevens.

INTENSIVE CAMPAIGN HAS BEEN POSTPONED

OWING TO ILLNESS OF A. P. LOVEJOY WAR SAVINGS STAMP CAMPAIGN HAS BEEN POSTPONED FOR ONE WEEK.

BOY SCOUTS WORKING

Boy Scouts Are Requested to Report at Campaign Headquarters to Places Over Top

For a number of reasons the intensive campaign in Janesville will not start until next week. Mr. Lovejoy has been ill for a number of days, and as he is deemed advisable to attempt an intensive campaign with our commander incapacitated by illness.

We were unable to get an outside speaker for the Fourth Liberty Loan Campaign until next week. At which time at the opera house Captain Edwards, the "fighting parson" will tell of his experiences at the front.

Meanwhile, keep in mind what we have to do in Janesville and in Rock county. We want $350,000.00 in Janesville and this means a great many more subscribers than we had for the Third Liberty Loan because no individual is permitted to subscribe for more than $1,000.00. This does not mean that each family is limited to $1,000.00, but every person in a family may subscribe to $1,000.00.

Undoubtedly citizens supposed that they would have a breathing spell until next fall when the Fourth Liberty Loan Campaign will be on; but we are at war and the government needs more money. It is not for us to hold back or try to rest while the government needs our help.

So let's go to it and put over this War Savings Campaign for Rock county. $350,000.00 for Janesville, and $1,000,000.00 for Rock county. In some places in the county the average in the community is the importance of the War Savings Campaign.

District No. 3 in the Town of Turtle went over the top in 12 hours and not only went over the top, but went to $1,000.00. District No. 3 in the Town of Turtle made an excellent showing. They raised $3,500.00. There were 18 subscribers; $5.00 as the lowest and $500.00 the highest.

Chicago, June 18.—Six cars of range sheep arrived yesterday. The market is expected to reach the market this season. A string of 800 wethers sold at $13.50, the highest price strictly grass fed range sheep ever brought on the market. Reports from the west are that grass is exceptionally good all over the range country and that both cattle and sheep are taking on fat very satisfactorily.

Movement of cattle to market is expected to commence in volume very soon and buyers are looking forward to the time when they can slaughter prices. Both sheep and lambs have been sold at a record limit for three months and the supply has not been sufficient to fill the urgent demand.

Local traders believe the supply of western lambs will be fairly large this season and the quality better than usual, on account of the abundance of feed.

Receipts of cattle were much larger than the trade expected and consisted largely of common and medium light weight grassy stuff that feeders were eager to get at the prevailing high prices.

The market for this class of bovine stock declined 25c and stands fully 60c lower than a week ago. On the other hand the best dry lot cattle were steady and one fixed lot sold at $15. Cows and heifers were 15 to 25c lower and grass-fed stuff very hard to sell. Good feeders met with a fair demand and remained about steady.

The hog supply was liberal, but demand was stronger than usual from packers and prices were 15c to 20c higher than Saturday. All big packers brought good steady trade and the trade was unusually active. Top landed at $17, against a $16.80 top Saturday.

Cattle receipts were figured at 24,000. The market was dull and slow except for a few of the best dry lot steers, which sold at the summit of the year $18.

Medium to good cattle were generally 10c to 15c lower at $16 to $17 and the common light weight grassy stuff sold at $12 to $13. The supply included a good many cows and heifers that were 10c to 15c lower and hard to sell if they showed grass.

Good fat cows and heifers sold at $12 to $13, with the common medium at $10 to $12. Canners and cutters $7 to $8. Bulls went at $8 to $12. Yearling calves sold slowly at $16 to $18. Good feeders $12 to $13.

Quotations: Choice to prime steers, $17.50@18.00. Good to choice steers, 16.75@17.50. Medium to good steers, 16.75@17.50. Common to medium steers, 15.50@16.50. Common killing steers, 12.00@13.50. Choice cows and heifers, 12.50@13.50. Medium cows and heifers, 10.00@12.00. Cows and cutters, 7.00@8.00. Bulls, 8.75@13.00. Stockers and feeders, 9.00@13.50. Calves, 12.50@16.25.

Hogs Advanced 15c to 20c from big packers and prices were 15c to 20c higher after a start on a basis of a 10c advance. All the regular buyers were working very extensively and there was considerable competition from smaller buyers. Eastern conditions were improved, which encouraged larger operations from shippers.

The late market was the best and the finish at the high spot of the day with the best hogs at $17. Most of the good light and medium weight hogs sold at $16.75 to $16.95 and the bulk of the desirable heavy said at $16.50 to $16.80.

Quotations: Choice light shippers, $16.65@17.00. Choice butchers, 16.60@17.00. Heavy butchers, 16.50@16.85. Common to good mixed, 16.10@16.60. Coarse heavy packers, 15.50@16.55. Pigs, 15.50@16.55.

Sheep and Lambs Lower. About 17,000 sheep and lambs were received, a big share consisting of Southern Spring lambs, consigned to packers. This took much of the competition out of the market and prices were mainly 15 to 25c lower than late last week with some of the Spring lambs 50c lower.

Quotations: Choice to good Springers sold at $19 to $20. Good shorn fed western lambs sold at $17 to $17.75. Native ewes were lower at $12 to $14.

Quotations: Spin ewes, $11.00@14.00. Rhom wethers, 12.00@14.25. Yearlings, 12.00@15.75. Rhom lambs, 17.00@17.75. Spring lambs, 19.00@20.00.

TWO DOROTHYS

By AGNES G. BROGAN.

(Copyright, 1918, by Western Newspaper Union.)

As Donald turned the note over in his hand, his face was a study. In all the course of his impulsive career, he had never faced such a situation. To number among one's acquaintances two "Dorothys" was natural enough, but to fancy one's self alternately in love with either of the charmers—was tragic. This little gray neatly written note added to his perplexities.

"Dear Donald," it said briefly. "Will you call at our house this afternoon between three and four—Dorothy."

That was all; to Donald, unacquainted with the handwriting of either Dorothy, the invitation tormented, while it pleased.

Don ruffled his hair as the thought came to him, reviewing the occurrences of the past few weeks. Not long before, when he had been talking to Dorothy Reynolds at an evening affair in her home, he had decided for the hundredth time, that no other girl could be at once so sensible and so attractive. Dorothy was sweet, that was the name for her, and he had told her, holding her hand behind the shelter of the ferns. And Dorothy Reynolds had looked adoringly up into his face, as she promised "sometime" to let him know her feelings toward him.

"We will go on being friends until I am sure, Donald," she had said, "then I will send for you." And straightway from his love making, Dorothy's brother had carried him into an adjoining room to meet, so Jack Reynolds said, "the prettiest girl in the world."

Don tried to turn his eyes away as she dimpled and charmed him, tried to force his reluctant bulk from the chair at her side, it was useless. With admiration his rebellious eyes sought her smile, and recklessly he still lingered.

"You are very interesting and all that, Mr. Burns," she said, "but I am neglecting my social duties. Let me see, I am to give the next dance to Jack Reynolds; after that, if you like—"

"You will dance with me?" Don had eagerly interposed.

"I will meet you on the side veranda," she replied, "and we will sit it out."

Don was elated, too elated to notice her sudden disapproval when he approached at the end of the dance, to claim his favor. Dorothy Dalcom seemed to have forgotten her promise. But later coming to him upon the veranda, she made amends.

"Jack Reynolds is jealous," she explained, "when he is jealous, he is disagreeable. That is why I did not want him to know anything about our visit here."

"What right has he—?" Don began furiously, but Dorothy's sly laugh rang out.

"Why, I believe you are jealous, too," she said.

As the weeks passed, Don was obliged to admit that fact. Jack Reynolds' presence at Dorothy Dalcom's side filled him with wild resentment. Alone with him upon the moonlit veranda, the girl quieted his disturbing fears.

"You are different from all others to me," she murmured; "it is as though I had known you always—and always."

She was very beautiful. "You mean," Don asked abruptly, "that you would care more for me more than all others?"

Dorothy's lovely eyes studied the stars. "When I am ready to tell you that, Don," she said, "I will send for you."

"By George!" he ejaculated, "which ever girl sent it, it means I'm engaged, or will be, promptly." Then he fell to musing. Dorothy Reynolds had not once summoned him by letter. During all the years of their friendship, her communications had been spoken over the telephone. That was her prompt way of insuring an answer.

Why, now, should she change?

As for Dorothy Dalcom, well, she would probably wish her message to be confidential. Don decided to take a chance and call at the home where Miss Dalcom was a guest. A tenderly regretful feeling stole about his heart as he trudged along—the other Dorothy would be surprised.

"Oh! Hang it!" muttered Don fiercely, and then his eyes fell upon two swaying figures in a hammock. Jack Reynolds' foot was propping the hammock, while Dorothy Dalcom's golden head was very near Jack's shoulder. Their backs were to Don as they swung to and fro, but the girl's voice reached him clearly.

"You know, Jack," she was saying, "you are different to me from all others; it seems as though I had known you always—and always."

The hammock came to an abrupt stop. Mr. Jack Reynolds was more impulsive than Donald had been upon a like occasion.

Don was surprised, as he silently retraced his steps, to find himself unmoved by the tableau, surprised at a sense of unmistakable relief pervading his being.

Dorothy Reynolds was on the veranda as he came down the path.

"You got my note?" she questioned.

"We want your help for our lawn fête this evening. Will you carry some things over in your car?"

"If you will go with me, Dorothy, dearest," Don answered with emphasis.

A troubled light in the girl's eyes disappeared.

"I will go, Don," she softly agreed.

Test of Endurance.

All of us are weak in the period of growth, and are of small worth before the hour of trial. Adversity is the inspector of our constitutions; she simply tries our muscle and powers of endurance, and should be a periodical visitor. But, until she comes, no man is known.

DELAVAN

Delavan, June 17.—Miss Harriet Hollister and Walter Topping were united in marriage June 14 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Hollister. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. G. Reser of the Congregational church, and the couple were very impressive. The bride was given in white crepe and the ceremony was attended by the bride's relatives and friends. The wedding was held at 11 o'clock, a dainty luncheon was served. The bride has taught in the Delavan public school for the past few years and Mr. Topping holds a responsible position as cashier at the Citizens' bank. After a short trip by auto Mr. and Mrs. Topping will return to their home at 207 Fourth street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Uley are entertaining Mrs. L. G. Noyes of Elkhorn, Ill., and Mrs. A. C. Crittenden of Whitewater. They also had as their guests on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ramsey and their families of Port Koshong, who made the trip by auto.

Joseph Kumbulla of Oconto visited his sisters and family the week-end.

Highland Park hotel on Delavan lake entertained about 200 on Saturday evening the first dance of the season. It was given at this popular place, and the jazz jumpers, an orchestra composed of Miss Kenney and Harold Paul Lange, furnished excellent music.

Other popular hotels, such as the Lakeland, Woodlawn Bay, and Lake Loran, on the lake shore, each had a large number of guests.

Rev. Elmer Serl is at home from Florida to visit his mother.

Thomas Burns, a resident here a few years ago, now of Milwaukee, has returned here Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Veichert of Burlington spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Barney Snodde.

Miss Zihart is spending some time with his father in Clinton.

Privates Arthur Moran and Donald McVoy of the 31st motor supply returned to Chicago Sunday afternoon by way of Williams Bay.

Mrs. Henry Gardner and baby went to Chicago Sunday afternoon to spend a couple of weeks with her sister, Mrs. John Cady.

L. D. Rutter was at his lake home, "The Hickory," over Sunday.

Miss Alice Nohetty and Marie Probin spent Sunday at their homes at Lake Geneva.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lindholm, who were here from Chippewa Falls visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Barnett, have gone to Milwaukee where Mr. Lindholm will teach manual training in a summer school.

Carl Barker and family started Sunday morning for Camp Douglas to visit friends, going by auto.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gundry and children were over Sunday guests of Mrs. Gundry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Keegan.

Mrs. W. Johnson entertained Friday evening in honor of her cousin, who is here from Iowa.

The Misses Hildegarde and Pauline Hildegarde spent Sunday at W. G. Lusbeck's in Lake Geneva.

Lawrence Brock is home from Whitewater, where he attended a commercial school.

Mrs. G. W. Fry of Sharon spent the latter part of the week with her daughters, Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Canison.

SOUTH FULTON

South Fulton, June 17.—On Friday evening, June 14, the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Thompson, South Fulton, was the scene of a most enjoyable social event, a farewell party given in honor of their son George A. who is many times known as Archie. The spacious home was filled with merry makers, who certainly made the most of the opportunity the few pleasant hours afforded. A notable feature of the occasion was a very stirring address along the lines of temperance and patriotism, J. C. Bartholomew in conclusion on behalf of those present presented the young recruit with an elegant wrist watch. A delicious luncheon was served and in the evening the guests departed with hearty hand-clasps and wishes for his safe return. He left here Saturday at 11:30 a. m. via C. & N. W. to join the colors at Vancouver Barracks, Wash.

THE RUSSIAN MENACE.

The biggest problem of the war is Russia. Already reports are coming that Russians are found fighting our boys in France. If Germany can go ahead and make Russia fight and work for her, the war is lost for us, no matter what military victories are won in France.

It may be necessary eventually to send an army to Russia. But if we do the Russians may turn right around and side with the Germans.

In every Russian town there are German agents filling up the simple-hearted people with their lies. Why not form an organization to tell the Russian people the truth?

It has been announced that Russian citizens of the United States have volunteered an army of 100,000 to fight for us in France. They help a lot in that way. But they could help far more if they were sent to Russia as individual citizens, to counteract the German spies. If we could put in every Russian town representatives of our people whose business it should be to work against the German spies, to help the Russians find out the truth about the Germans, to tell them the Germans tell about us, it would do more good than armies.

The Germans have succeeded with their campaign in Russia because they understood the Russian people. If we are to win Russia back, we must understand the Russian people. It is no use to try to set up any form of government there that they do not want. We must appeal to what reason they have, and open their eyes to show them what they will suffer if they become subject to the Germans.

There is a Russian language motion picture, truth telling representatives all over Russia, this is the kind of army we should send first.

DO NOT NEGLECT.

Do not neglect the pay of the teachers of the various grades and high school. Get the best possible line of instruction for the future citizens of Janesville that is possible. Do not be penny-wise and pound foolish. Do not be member that the money is not yours, it is the best material possible and not putting up with a shoddy substitute because it is cheap.

The school year is practically over but next year looms up before us. We must look to the future if we expect to have better citizens in years to come and in no place in citizenship taught to a greater advantage than in the schools. The common schools and the upper classes in the high school, develop our citizens of the next generation. We can not be stingy in the development of this work. We must have the best material available.

The school year is ended but the summer vacation only too short—will end shortly and then we must again enter upon our school work for another year. Let us enter it prepared with the best of teachers who have not gone to war that are available, and above all pay them living wages and be assured of the best service possible.

BAND CONCERTS.

Members of the Flower City band and the men who made it possible that weekly concerts be held, may feel well repaid if the initial concert of the band is any criterion of what the citizens as a whole feel toward this line of entertainment. Unfortunately we have no permanent bandstand in the Court House park, but he it is to say, the public enjoy the concerts. Why not have a permanent bandstand? Why not have a place where a speaker for open air addresses can talk to his audience? Why not erect a suitable cement or stone structure that would do for the dual purpose of a public room and also large enough to accommodate a band giving a concert?

It would be just as feasible as buying a three hundred dollar power lawn mower to run over the hills and dunes of the various parks and not cost very much more and be a permanent structure, whereas the lawn mower needs gasoline and man-power to run it. Let's think it over. If not, why not? The public would enjoy it and the public pays the bills. Let us have an open forum on the question if need be.

WRITE ANYWAY.

Our soldier boys across the water complain they receive no letters. Well, the business men of New York complain their mail is held up and file formal protests with the postoffice department regarding it. Perhaps they are to blame, but as has been so often said, you can not add a zero to zero and make a hundred. It needs another figure standing before the cipher. Meanwhile write to your boys and your friends across the sea and trust to luck. Better than not writing at all. Take a chance your letter will go through this time and be optimistic. You can not reform that postoffice department in a single written complaint and everyone knows that postmaster at Chicago could not handle the mail of Chicago if he did not have experience. The only trouble is the mail for the soldiers has gone far beyond the expectations of the officials who were prepared for a "Podunk" mail and not for a Chicago delivery. It takes broad-gauged men to run this government after all. Meanwhile write away and take chances.

The graduation audiences will go to sleep over some of the heavy essays now being written, but it will show them have entire confidence in the truth of the statements proclaimed by the speakers.

The man who can hardly walk into the baseball bleachers without falling over something, feels perfectly confident to yell "Take him out," when a player misses a hot grounder with a foul bound.

The Germans carefully note when they capture 10,000 prisoners in a battle, but carefully forget to mention they had 100,000 killed and wounded.

Some of the people who have been unable to plant a garden because it was too early, will soon conclude it isn't best to do it this year, as it is too late.

Thieves are getting so bold that they hitch on to automobiles and tow them off, but so far they have not gone so far as to kidnap the police.

Who's Who In Today's News

BARON STEPHAN BURIAN. In September, 1914, when Count Berchold was dropped as Austria's minister of foreign affairs the reading world was puzzled over the personality of his successor, thus regarded as a "man of mystery."

This man was Baron Stephan Burian von Rajecz, who has again been called to pilot the Austrian foreign policy. Count Czernin, deposed recently because he had compromised his royal master, the Emperor Charles, with the Kaiser, had been Baron Burian's successor on Dec. 28, 1915.

Baron Burian, whose consular and diplomatic training was long and varied. The baron's diplomatic career began when he became a post office royal chamberlain, a post only for those who can show an unbroken chain of ancestors of pure nobility, on the father's and mother's side, for at least seven generations.

He married the daughter of a former prime minister of Hungary and a seph. The baron's father-in-law, a seph, although he was of bourgeois ancestry, so the baron's descendants, born with higher title than he cannot attain the distinction he, a simple, nobleman, acquired.

He served in Alexandria, Bulgaria and east, Belgrade, Serbia, in the consular other places while in the consular service, and was transferred to the diplomatic department, becoming minister to Athens. Then he became minister of finance for the joint administration of Bosnia and Herzegovina, control over Bosnia and Herzegovina.

He was Hungarian cabinet minister at the imperial court when first made minister of foreign affairs.

His career demonstrated that he had taken advantage of time and opportunity to familiarize himself with conditions and policies in the Balkan states and that he never participated in the partisan politics of his country.

Baron Burian is over six feet tall, quiet, patient, a man of few words, rarely ever makes a speech, and his only sport is hunting.

Responsible posts have come to him because, it is said, the offices needed him, not he the offices.

J. C. LILGAN, U. S. N. An illiterate Wisconsin justice of the peace used to consult what looked like a law book, which was really a mail-order catalogue. One day a colored person was hailed before the squire for drunkenness. The squire heard the evidence and then, after opening his book and glancing at it, fined the prisoner $4.48 to be worked out on the roads at 25 cents a day. As the negro was being led away he said to the marshal: "Ise sho' an unlucky guy." "Unlucky, nothing," replied the marshal. "If the squire had happened to open that book to automobiles instead of parts you'd be working on the road the rest of your life."

Opportunity knocks at your door not only on rainy times, but you needn't think that opportunity is going to be a locksmith, bring a skeleton key, unlock your door, come upstairs and pull you out of bed, dress you, wash your face, carry you downstairs and put you in a 30 h. p. automobile just in order to start you on your way.

WILL HOLD CONFERENCE WITH DIRECTOR GENERAL

(By Associated Press.)
St. Louis, June 18.—Delegations from all of the important cities of the lower Mississippi Valley, including twenty-eight citizens of this city, are enroute to Washington for a conference next week with Director General of Railroads McAdams. They will urge the use of the Mississippi river as a freight carrier to relieve railroad congestion. The tentative date of the conference is Monday.

Roads and barges are being built on the upper Mississippi and the utilization of the lower Mississippi as a waterway will be asked. The committee from this city will submit statistics, supported by sworn statements, to the committee that recently considered the report of the Inland Coastwise Waterways Committee. In this report it was stated that the lower Mississippi could be used as a carrier of freight as there is not a sufficient channel between this city and New Orleans.

Capt. Walter Brown of the steamboat Natchez, which conveyed a cargo of box cars from here to New Orleans, reported to the local committee that he had no trouble in making the trip. The trip was made in December, which makes the lower river stages, and the cargo here was only two and one-half feet. The tow consisted of fifteen barges.

Plans for the construction of concrete barges on the river are being formulated by the local chamber of commerce. According to an announcement made after a committee of construction engineers had conferred recently with Flint Garrison, a representative of the war board, this plan has been under consideration for some time. It was said that the plan is a sequel to efforts of the Chamber of Commerce of St. Louis to have the railroad administration appropriate a portion of the $6,000,000,000 fund to be used in developing transportation facilities to the construction of barges on the Mississippi.

Mr. Garrison was instructed by the war board to appoint a committee of engineers to investigate the possibilities of the plan.

After the details have been worked out, they will be presented to the government for approval.

News Notes from Movieland

BY DAISY DEAN

HIS little Chinese maid is an ardent suffragette and intends to plead the cause in her native land when she has learned all that she can from her venture in motion pictures.

"I realize that the motion picture is a great propaganda force," said Miss Lee, "and that is why I am going to use it as a means of educating my countrywomen to better things. Asking a million questions a day and carefully storing away in her keen mind all the information she receives for future use, Alice Lee is by far the busiest little person around the World studios.

Miss Lee is appearing as one of the leading characters in a new World picture, "Mandarin's Gold," in which Kitty Gordon is starred. She is utilizing every moment she is at the studio in studying the making of motion pictures, from the staging of the plays to the developing of the negatives and the making of the prints.

"I am going back to China soon and with me I will take some thousands of feet of film showing the fact that American men treat American women with the utmost respect everywhere. Then, when I am in China I will take pictures showing the way Chinese men treat our womenfolk. After this I will show both pictures one after the other and in this way forcefully bring home to my countrymen the difference in the standing of women in America and China. It is so that I may be able to have success in taking the pictures back home in China that I am studying so hard here now and asking so many questions which the picture people so kindly answer for me."

ABOUT ELSIE.
Reminiscent of her musical comedy days is the dance performed by Elsie Ferguson in "A Doll's House," for the star started her career at the very bottom of the histrionic ladder as chorus girl. Possessed of an exceptional voice, beauty and displaying unusual grace as a dancer, Miss Ferguson might today be known as a musical comedy star if the call of her ambition had not led her into emotional dramatic channels.

ture cycle of the life of Lincoln, on Lincoln's birthday. He went at once to the sanitarium, where he failed steadily until the end.
One of the recognized authorities of the Lincoln cult, Chapin saw the possibilities of photo play as a medium five years he remained in private life, writing the scenarios and filming them. His action grew more steady, but he labored until his task was done.
Chapin died before he could realize the financial fruits of his life's ambition. His royalties are estimated at $500,000.

STUDY CIRCUS METHODS.

Uncle Sam's Official Observe System of Carl Hagenbeck-Wallace Show.

Beneath the pomp and glitter and amidst the odor of sawdust and naphtha is a system of government and management whose scope and scale are stupendous and staggering. No human institution is more perfect in operation than the circus. Surely no more flattering tribute could be paid the Carl Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus than that officially given by the United States Government. Officers from the army department, veterans in their profession, carefully observed the rapid sequence of proceedings when the big show was in Washington.
The naval officers were in the railroad yards to watch the arrival of the trains, the process of debarkation, and on the show grounds the marveled at the manner in which the master Aladdin-like palaces were raised in the air. They critically observed the manner in which the two-mile-long street parade was lined up. They marveled at the haste and precision in which hundreds of their employees hustled about their work. Gen. Evans surveyed the scenes and he was dumfounded. He asked for permission for several members of his staff to travel with the show a fortnight that they might grasp a few ideas as to how so great an institution is moved. Gen. Evans confessed that the army department had always loaded their wagons on flat cars by hoisting them over the side, not rolling on them from the end.

In reality there are two separate shows, Carl Hagenbeck's collection of trained animals and the Great Wallace Circus. Several years ago the two shows were combined.

Upper left-hand picture shows a searchlight battery drill by members of division of engineering corps. Upper right-hand picture shows a "close up" of one of the big lights. Lower picture shows battery of lights throwing shafts of light into the night to expose enemy airplanes hovering over a city.

The searchlight is playing an important part in the war as a weapon of defense. Powerful lights that throw light into the heavens are being constructed and formed into batteries to protect men in the trenches and enable American and allied airmen and anti-aircraft gunners to spot them. The above pictures show some of these lights now being prepared for emergency work in some of our coast cities.

TOO YOUNG TO FIGHT WILL BE SENT HOME

(By Associated Press.)
St. Louis, June 18.—The American Expeditionary forces in France probably will be decreased by one fighter as soon as a communication from Adjutant General McCain reaches Gen. Pershing. The fighter is Marion Ireland of this city and the fact that he lacks several years of being old enough to join the army is the reason that his mother, through Congress, has made appeal to the war department to have him returned.

Ireland always has shown a love for army life. At the age of fourteen he enlisted in the Missouri national guards, but on account of illness his parents obtained his discharge. He celebrated his sixteenth birthday by enlisting in the aviation corps. Mrs. Ireland, 11 in California, wrote to Washington for her son's discharge. It was ordered but when effort was made to find Ireland he was already in France with an aviation squadron. The boy's father does not feel the concern of the mother and believes the boy's ardor may prevail over even an official communication when decision is put up to General Pershing.

Why Swift & Company Has Grown

The fact that a business organization has grown steadily for forty years proves that it has kept continually meeting a vital business demand.

It must have kept "fit" or it could not have stood the strain of ever-shifting conditions.

Swift & Company has been trained in the school of experience.

Every day of its forty years of service has solved some new problem of value to its customers.

Every year has proved its ability to learn by experience, and to use this knowledge for the benefit of those with whom it deals.

WOMEN ORGANIZE TO AID WOUNDED: CITIZEN DONATES HOME FOR HOSPITAL

D. S. Troxel of Elyria, Ohio, and the Ely Mansion he gave for a soldiers' convalescing home.

The mothers and relatives of soldiers in Elyria, Ohio, recently formed a "Mothers of Democracy" club, whose purpose was to supply cheer and comfort to the American soldier. Then D. S. Troxel, one of Elyria's patriotic citizens, offered the women the use of his old mansion and estate for a convalescing hospital. The proposition was accepted immediately and the people are now preparing a home which will accommodate 150 men. Elyria is one of the first towns in the United States to establish such a home.

New Ideas Needed in War-Time Advertising

At Federal there was a quick recognition of a war-time needs in advertising. To analyze nation-wide conditions at first hand a Federal director recently made a fact-gathering trip to the Pacific Coast, the results of which are most enlightening.

There is, unquestionably, an open door for new products conducive to comfort and cheer, as well as for products that will conserve work, wheat, meat, fuel, wool and other essentials.

It is also evident that the advertising of older products must, of necessity, be more forceful, more original and less wasteful than ever before.

At Federal we believe in making sensible originality increase the value of the advertising dollar.

If you feel that a new angle on your advertising problem might be advantageous in these critical times, may we suggest that you

BABE RUTH SUFFERS BAD BATTING SLUMP

Chicago, June 18.—"Babe" Ruth, the Boston pitcher, whose hitting was the sensation of the American league, and resulted in his playing in the outfield, has been hitting badly in the last week. He has dropped to sixth place among the batters who have played in 25 or more games according to the latest figures published today, and which include games of Wednesday. Ruth's batting average has fallen to .175, and he is hitting .292. The club of Detroit is hitting .292, while the home team is an even dozen.

Harry Hooper, newly appointed captain of the Boston team, has jumped into the lead as the leading run getter. He has scored 37 times. Ruth's mark of seven home runs remains high. Shanon of Boston has broken into the lead as the leading home run hitter, with four in the last week. He leads with 18. Sister of St. Louis, continued to set the pace among the home slappers with a mark of 27.1, leads in team batting. Leading batters for 25 or more games:

Thurs, Philadelphia 359; Sister, St. Louis 353; Walker, Philadelphia 342; Baker, New York 348; Hooper, Boston 337; Ruth, Boston 323; E. Collins, Chicago 317; Snodden, Cleveland 313; McMillin, Chicago 312; Gilhooly, New York 307.

In the National league, Fred Merkle of Chicago continued his slugging and added another point to his average. He is now batting .477, which is thirteen points better than the average of the league. Merkle's mark, however, is still in the teens. The New Yorker continues out of the game on account of an operation. The averages include games of Wednesday.

Max Carey of Pittsburgh has been destroyed by George Thurns, of New York, as leader of the home run hitters. The New York outfielder has pilfered 23 of Carey's 21. Carey of St. Louis chalked up two more circuit drives for himself, and pulled away from Wickland, of Boston. Hooper has made five honors. Hooper Kauff, of New York, who soon will be a member of the National army is leading scorer of the league, having registered 33 times. Chicago, having registered 281, leads in club batting. Leading batters for 20 or more games are:

Merkle, Chicago 373; J. C. Smith, Boston 345; Mann, Chicago 345; Dick, Brooklyn 338; Wickland, Boston 337.

FELIX FIFTEEN JUST WANTED TO COMMUTE IN COMFORT

333; Kauff, New York 326; Paskert, Chicago 323; Hollocher, Chicago 322; Johnson, Cincinnati 318; Paulette, St. Louis 314.

Johnson of Milwaukee, continues to lead the American Association batters with .573, the averages including games of Wednesday. Wagner of Columbus, who was pushing him, has dropped to twelfth place, while Leff of Louisville, who was in fifth place, has moved to second.

McHenry, of Milwaukee, retains the lead among the home run hitters with five. Riggert of St. Paul, has broken into the lead for stolen bases and has a mark of 13 thefts. Taggart of Columbus, broke the triple tie for sacrifice honors, and is out in front with 14. Bescher of Louisville, is the leading run getter with 29. Kansas City, with a mark of .288, leads in club batting. Leading batters who have played in 20 or more games:

KEYSTONE POSITION ON GIANTS HOODOO?

[BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS]
 NEW YORK, June 18.—The second base job on the New York Giants must be hoodooed.

Tough luck in one form or another, has stood in the path of four players who have held down the keystone position for McGraw during the past two years. If the job isn't hoodooed, what is it?

Buck Herzog has tried holding down the position for McGraw several times. And Buck and that said job did not get along. Early last season, after he had been brought back to the Giants for the third time, Buck slipped on the floor at the Polo Grounds while en route to Philadelphia with the team and received severe injuries. His condition has never been the same since that accident, and yet it wasn't that which caused McGraw to dispose of him, for in addition, he failed to get along with the Giant leader.

Next in line came Larry Doyle, who was brought back to the New York Club via Chicago and Boston. Larry went great guns for several weeks after the season opened, he led the league in batting and he was going like a machine in the field. Suddenly he was taken ill and had to undergo an operation.

With Doyle out of it, McGraw purchased Bert Nichols from the St. Louis Cardinals, and just as the team was getting ready to leave Philadelphia to return to the Polo Grounds, a long and painful operation was performed on the circuit Nighthawk.

Joe Rodriguez, the Cuban infielder, has played the keystone, snuck in and out for the Giants all season, but Joe doesn't have the best of luck in the job, for though he works harder to make good than any other man who ever held the sack down, he can't make himself fit into the combination. The members of the Giants themselves are beginning to think that the second basing job is fated to a faring you-well and no one can blame them.

The Latest Reason.

NORTHWEST GOLF TOURNAMENT OPENS

[BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS]

Seattle, Wash., June 18.—The Pacific Northwest Golf Association War Relief Tournament, probably the largest sports show ever staged in the Northwest as a money-raiser for the Red Cross, opened here today with so many disorders and so many out-breaks against the umpires have been manifested in the majors. We are then to assume that the umpiring is unusually bad, or else the fighting spirit of the nation has got into the fans' blood.

Billie Miske, the St. Paul heavy-weight, who went all the way to Frisco for the purpose of boxing any secured for him at the recent Red Cross show, succeeded in knocking out Henry Hendricks in the second round of a four-round bout. Miske was originally booked to meet Willie McGo, but as Willie was not well enough to go on, Hendricks was substituted. Miske passed up three bouts in order to make good for the Red Cross.

For the third time since he made his successful comeback, Frankie Burns, the Jersey City bantamweight, has refused to take a forfeit from a fighter when he came in over the weight at which they were to battle. The most recent case was that of Battling Reddy. The boxer was to have weighed in at 122 pounds ring-side. Reddy was three pounds over weight.

Although Jack Dempsey, the western heavyweight, who is booked to meet Fred Fulton on July 4, has scored many quick knockouts, he fails to get much money out of his victories. Dempsey fought Arthur Peake, a veteran big man at Denver recently and knocked him out in two minutes. Less than 900 fans saw the knockout.

Sport Snap Shots

MORRIS MILLER

Charlie Herzog is much impressed with the hitting strength of the Cincinnati Reds. "If the team isn't against the weaker clubs as the Giants do," says Herzog, "they are likely to surprise McGraw and his bunch. One strong point about McGraw is that he always forces his team to put forth its best places against clubs that look easy and so runs up a big lead while others good clubs are apt to drop a game here and there that should be won. The Reds have proved themselves masters of the Giants. I believe they actually have a chance for the pennant if they can keep up their hitting streak." . . .

Chicago has forgotten all about Vic Saler and other famous first sack guards because of the splendid work Fred Merkle has been doing this season. The one-time Giants has not only been playing sterling ball at the bag, but he has been hitting harder than ever before. And is today the real leader of the National league batsmen. The followers of "Muscle" indicate that he is not doing plenty of muscle into his blows. Merkle was thought to be through last year. The Cubs figured on having Saler with them again and Merkle was slated to be used as utility infielder.

The races in the two big leagues are still very much in doubt, and it isn't a certainty that either the Chicago White Sox or the American or the New York Giants in the National, rivals in last fall's world's series are going to repeat. The Giants and the army are going to have a hard time holding their own. Chicago and Cincinnati both threaten to make the traveling extremely uncomfortable for Manager McGraw's legion.

The White Sox were either playing ahead of their speed when they won the pennant last season, else they have yet to get started this year. Manager Rowland's men haven't shown anything like championship form at any time since the flag chase opened, and are now fighting the Cleveland Indians for last place in the first division. While the New York Yankees and Boston Red Sox are making the race, the Yankees have been a real surprise. The addition of Pratt to the infield, Bodie to the outfield and the development of two young pitchers have changed Manager Huggins' prospects from a second division berth to a championship contender, and incidentally, have just about made Huggins the idol of dear old Broadway.

Two of the Highest Finds of the Year in the National league—Ray Schrand and Charlie Hollocher—are St. Louis boys. Another St. Louis boy, who would be a find if properly encouraged is James Smyth of the Cards, but being a home-town boy he has found the going very hard. Smyth is now warming for the beach while Marty Kavanaugh, formerly of the Indians, is performing stunts around the keystone territory.

Robert Shawkey's wife has been granted a divorce. Shawkey is in the navy, joining after he failed to secure a lower classification in the draft. He and his wife fell out because she refused to make a statement that she depended upon him for support and at the time stated that she was the supporting end of the pair, not the husband. Mrs. Shawkey, before her marriage, was famous as a sort in Philadelphia as "The Tiger Lady."

Dave Davenport, of the Browns' hit Ruben Oldring of the Athletics on the elbow with a pitched ball, cracking the joint so severely that Oldring is out of the game indefinitely. Davenport is confident of Oldring following Merlin Kopp's call to the colors. Leaves Connie Mack's plans for an outfield all upset. If it's not one thing it's another for the belted Mack.

This has been a bad season for umpiring in both of the big leagues. Complaints against the arbiters have been general around the circuits. The American league, usually most fortunate in this respect, has come in for more than its usual share of disturbances traceable to umpiring. The most recent was at Cleveland, when Umpires Owens and Hildebrand rendered decisions that threw the Indians' supporters into a frantic mood. Pop bottles were showered upon the field and a crowd of angry spectators tried to make a hostile attack upon Owens. The president of the ball club was forced to take both the diamond judges into his car and drive them downtown to escape the crowd's growing wrath.

Another pop-bottling heaving party took place in Brooklyn the other day, and the spectators at the Dodgers' park swarmed upon the field in an attempt to mob the ump. Earlier in the season at the Polo grounds a decision at the home plate in a game with the Giants resulted in another similar riot. It's been a long time since so many disorders and so many out-breaks against the umpires have been manifested in the majors. We are then to assume that the umpiring is unusually bad, or else the fighting spirit of the nation has got into the fans' blood.

Billie Miske, the St. Paul heavy-weight, who went all the way to Frisco for the purpose of boxing any secured for him at the recent Red Cross show, succeeded in knocking out Henry Hendricks in the second round of a four-round bout. Miske was originally booked to meet Willie McGo, but as Willie was not well enough to go on, Hendricks was substituted. Miske passed up three bouts in order to make good for the Red Cross.

For the third time since he made his successful comeback, Frankie Burns, the Jersey City bantamweight, has refused to take a forfeit from a fighter when he came in over the weight at which they were to battle. The most recent case was that of Battling Reddy. The boxer was to have weighed in at 122 pounds ring-side. Reddy was three pounds over weight.

Although Jack Dempsey, the western heavyweight, who is booked to meet Fred Fulton on July 4, has scored many quick knockouts, he fails to get much money out of his victories. Dempsey fought Arthur Peake, a veteran big man at Denver recently and knocked him out in two minutes. Less than 900 fans saw the knockout.

Dempsey got less for his end than the average bantamweight gets for an average fight.

Joe Jackson, former White Sox star, now busily engaged in painting ships at Wilmington, Del., says no matter how long the war lasts, or whatever happens, he is done with baseball. Joe is considerably displeased at the newspaper criticism of his actions in going to work in a shipyard when called in the draft and that seems to back up his decision to say good-bye to baseball.

The other day Eddie Collins of the Chicago Sox had eight putouts at second base. It was stated at the time that the achievement probably constituted a world's record. This is not so. There are two other infelicitous records that off-set Collins' work. In the old days a second baseman by the name of Hawks, playing with the Troy, N. Y., team, accepted twelve putouts at second base, and in 1901 Hobey Ferris collected a total of ten putouts in a nine-inning game at second base. This was when Ferris was playing with the Boston Americans.

FOOTVILLE

Footville, June 17.—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Poynter spent a part of last week with their daughter, Mrs. Florence Gransce and family near Evansville. Little Dorothy Gransce returned with them and is now at the Poynter home.

Mrs. Allie Davis came out from Janesville on Wednesday and will remain for some time with her sister, Mrs. J. W. Quimbley. Her son, Floyd came up from Beloit on Friday evening and spent the night, returning on Saturday morning.

Mrs. Raymond Patterhoff came from Ft. Atkinson on Saturday for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Will Timm. Mrs. Mattice returned on Friday from the home of Raymond Snyder, where she had been caring for their infant daughter, who has been so dangerously ill.

Sheriff Whipple of Janesville transacted business in town recently. Mr. and Mrs. Fields of Chicago, arrived in town on Friday for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Searcy.

Mrs. John Fraser returned on Friday evening having spent the past few weeks with friends in Indiana and Chicago.

Miss Lizzie Chambers came from Monroe and was an over Sunday guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Lacey. Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Teehan wish to announce the birth of a fine baby daughter which recently came as a most welcome addition to their home. Mrs. Teehan will perhaps be better remembered here as Miss Belle Fankhurst. Both mother and babe are doing fine.

Ray Silverthorn and family motored to Watertown and spent Sunday with friends.

Mrs. Blodgett came up from Beloit on Saturday for a few days' visit with friends here.

Miss Daisy Silverthorn returned from Mercy Hospital in Janesville on Saturday and is able to be around again.

Oscar Brown and family motored to Emerald Grove and spent Sunday with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ramer came from Twin Grove on Saturday for a visit at the home of the latter's sister, Mrs. Will Timm and family.

The C. W. B. M. will meet on Wednesday afternoon of this week with Mrs. George Schumacher. Arthur Buck and family motored here from Dayton and spent Sunday with friends, and attended Children's Day exercises at the M. E. church.

A new supply of attractive literature and folders on travel in the Pacific Northwest has just been received by the Gazette Travel Bureau.

OH YOU "SUMMER" COLD

It will not tarry long with you, if you get busy at once with this delightful soothing cream. Contains menthol which cools and eases the congestion. Also good, old-fashioned camphor which heals and clears up the head. A quick relief for all inflammations. Two sizes—at your drug store.

JACK FROST
 25¢ CREAM 50¢

It only Takes a Minute to send him a pouch of Real GRAVELY Chewing Plug

Just drop into any wide awake dealer around here, give him 10 cents for the pouch of Real Gravely, complete in the special envelope ready for mailing.

Address it according to the official directions he will give you. Put on a 3 cent stamp—and Uncle Sam's Mails will see that he gets it.

Real Gravely is the tobacco to send. Not ordinary plug loaded up with sweetening, but condensed quality. It's worth sending a long way, and when he receives it he's got something. Give any man a chew of Real Gravely Plug, and he will tell you that's the kind to send. Send the best!

Ordinary plug is false economy. It costs less per week to chew Real Gravely, because a small chew of it lasts a long while.

SEND YOUR FRIEND IN THE U. S. SERVICE A POUCH OF GRAVELY

Even "over there" a 3c. stamp will put it into his hands.

Every Family a Fighting Family!

That is the war-time spirit of true-blue Americans---the spirit that will win the war. The day of talking patriotism is passed---the time has come to practice it.

Your government has officially set---

Friday, June 28th National War Savings Day

On June 28th every American will be summoned to enlist in the great "army that stays at home." On that day every loyal American should "sign the pledge" to invest a definite amount in War Savings Stamps each month during 1918.

CLINTON NEWS

Clinton, June 16.—A short booster run for the Clinton Chautauqua was made last night, going to Allens Grove, Avalon and Shople. About twenty cars were in line, headed by the Clinton band. Floyd Lankam of Chicago, a representative of the Chautauqua bureau, was present to take charge of the run. A stop was made at the farm home of Peter and Mrs. C. having a social there that evening for the benefit of their chapter. They realized about $30. Postmaster Stewart, Wallace Chessman, C. A. Boden, Paul Hastings and James Coleman motored to Milwaukee today, where they will attend "Dokey" ceremonial this evening. They expect to return Sunday evening.

Mrs. H. M. Stoney and Mrs. Flora Smith went to Delavan lake on Tuesday for a couple of weeks' stay at Mrs. Stoney's cottage.

Thomas Hankinson spent the week in Milwaukee to attend the grand chapter of the Masonic lodge. Mrs. Hankinson, Miss Minnie Fuller and Fern Giles spent Wednesday in Janesville.

Harold Bruce came home from Camp Grant today on a short furlough.

Miss Hannah Vorhees returned last Sunday from an extended visit in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Klingbeil and family, Mr. and Mrs. Will Graeber and Mrs. A. F. Hasse motored to Camp Grant on Friday morning to see Palmer Kilgus and his family, who are at Camp Custer. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Frank of Darien were also of the party.

The Tuesday club had an outing at Delavan lake this week. They were accompanied by the Northrop cottage.

Miss Mildred Hawks arrived from Battle Creek, Mich., last evening to remain for some time at her home. Her mother and daughter Mildred have gone to New Jersey, to be near Captain Hawks, who is now stationed at Camp Dix.

Mrs. W. O. Thomas visited in Rockford on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Watts and son Stewart motored over from Walworth today to visit the latter's mother, Mrs. Susan Stewart, and other relatives.

Miss Jane Patchen of Waukesha is visiting her grandfather, M. A. Patchen, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kennerly are spending the week-end in their cottage at Delavan lake.

Friday was an unfortunate day for several Clinton people. Mrs. Lam, who lives here, fell from the hay loft of the barn while getting chickens, breaking two ribs and an ankle. The accident happened while she was milking. The cow he was milking kicked him, throwing him down and kicking him over the head. Though suffering much pain, fortunately no bones were broken. C. L. Tuttle, who was installing a gas line in the barn, was on the scene when the accident happened. He was fastening a screw when the wrench slipped off, causing him to lose his balance. The accident happened while he was driving. Rat her a strenuous day for Dr. Thomas to celebrate his nineteenth wedding anniversary.

Brodhead News

Brodhead, June 17.—

AMERICAN ENGINEERS' WORK IN FRANCE IMPORTANT; THEIR DUTY IS TO SPEED MOVEMENT OF SUPPLIES

A black and white photograph showing a large industrial machine, possibly a steam engine or boiler, being moved by a crane on a barge or dock. Several men are standing nearby, and the scene is set against a backdrop of clouds. The machine is a large, cylindrical boiler with various pipes and fittings. It is being hoisted by a crane with a lattice boom. The machine is on a flatbed or barge. Several men in work clothes are standing on the ground, observing the operation. The background shows a body of water and some distant structures. The sky is filled with large, stylized clouds. The overall scene suggests a major engineering project or the transport of a large piece of industrial equipment.
